

WHS-ALERT-007-2016

16 November, 2016

All Staff and Students

Snakes become more active from their mating season in September and into the warmer months. With snakes becoming more active, it is likely that occasionally a snake will cross paths with a human.

For information on what snakes live near you, have a look at the Department of Environment website

--	--	--	--