

The Role of Retail on our Campus

Retail stores act as a significant enabler to student activity and the campus experience.

Retail stores at the University exist to provide students, staff and visitors to our campuses with easily accessible and good value products and services, including food and beverages.

Our Retail Strategy