cognition. During her stay between 11 and 18 November at the LCRC, she will be working on issues related to studying body part terms, with a focus on cognitive linguistics approach (embodiment as key to “universal” conceptualizations, metaphor, metonymic chains, cultural conceptualizations, etc.) and will offer a talk within the LCRC seminar series.

Professor Heronides Moura (PhD 1996, Unicamp, Brazil), Professor of linguistics at the Universidade Federal de Santa Catarina, an expert on Portuguese and Romance linguistics will be visiting the LCRC from 1 December to 22 December 2019, working on various issues in the grammatical structure of Romance languages in typological perspective.
